

HOBBIES

For adventurers, Monkey Kwest escape games and the two indoor climbing centers—Hapik and Arkose—will satisfy your desire for leisure activities.

For those who prefer to relax, the Les Lumières and CGR Cœur Université cinemas offer a wide selection of films.

FESTIVITIES

- May: Écozone – a festival celebrating everyday ecology.
- June: Parade(s) – a street arts festival!
- July/August: Summer in Nanterre, featuring the beach.
- November: Ferme Géante – Discover animals, entertainment, and a local produce market right in the city center during two days of festivities!

The team is in the city center to welcome you all year round.
Pick up brochures, maps, and ideas for outings on-site, and visit our shop to discover Nanterre and share it with others!

Inquiries and information :

Office de Tourisme de Nanterre
4, rue du Marché, 92000 NANTERRE
From Tuesday to Saturday 10AM-1PM and 2PM-6PM
(closed on public holiday)

Tel : 01 47 21 58 02
E-mail : accueil@ot-nanterre.fr
Website : www.ot-nanterre.fr

NANTERRE'S MUST-SEES

DISCOVER THE CITY

2,500 YEARS OF HISTORY !

Wow!

History enthusiasts can stroll through the old streets of the town center, including the iconic Rue Volant and the Cathedral of Sainte-Geneviève, a listed historical monument.

ANOMALOUS

Did you know? You can spot a windmill in Nanterre (the Moulin des Gibets) and admire numerous street art spots.

TO GO FOR A WALK

For walking and cycling enthusiasts, the cycle paths including the Avenue Verte and the Seine à Vélo route along the riverbanks are ideal. Self-guided tours, available for free from the Tourist Office or on our website, offer a more casual way to discover Nanterre.

SHOPPING AND FOOD

Food lovers, savor the traditional Brioche de Nanterre! Discover local products from Brasserie Nemeto, enjoy restaurant terraces, or go shopping at one of the markets and the city's many shops.

NATURE

Nature lovers, take your pick (or not) from:

- Parc André Malraux, with its Central Park vibes.
- Parc du Chemin de l'Île, along the banks of the Seine.
- Parc des Anciennes Mairies, home to numerous events.
- Les Terrasses de l'Arche, where you can see the iconic Grande Arche.

And many more!

CULTURE

Enthusiasts can treat themselves to:

- An exhibition at the Terrasse Espace d'art, the Departmental Archives, or the La Contemporaine museum.
- A play at the Théâtre Nanterre-Amandiers (National Drama Centre).
- A performance at the Maison de la Musique.
- A concert or event at Europe's largest venue: Plénitude Arena.
- Guided tours and exhibitions organized by the Tourist Office.

And much more to discover in the Tourist Office's events calendar!

SPORT AT NANTERRE

Sports enthusiasts will be delighted by Nanterre 92 basketball games, wrestling matches, or even breakdancing with Nanterious Break at the Palais des Sports Maurice Thorez. Or why not catch the Rolex Paris Masters tennis tournament at the Plénitude Arena?

